(n34): The price of this service (subsection 1.5.1.3) does not apply for Fishmeal - IMO Class 9 previously declared as such in the Container Announcement List (CAL) for shipping as per procedures.

(n35): This service covers additional capacity of container yard or stacks of full containers (except transhipment). In the case of high-cube containers the price is independent from the number of storage days at the Terminal and this is not applicable for containers of Temporary Depot service (section 1.4 services), in the case of containers with oversized cargo, the use of area is billed from the first day (does not include free hours).

(n36): Applicable to all users that necessarily require the service(s), according to conditions established in the Tariffs Regulation and Commercial Policy of APM Terminals Callao S.A.

(n37): This is applicable until 6th day of storage also. This tariff is applicable to all containers that have been loaded or discharged via the Multipurpose North Terminal, except for transhipment and re-stow containers.

(n38): This tariff is applicable from day 1 onwards for Port Terminal services (when APMTC has not been appointed Temporary Depot), price is applicable from day 8th onwards.

(n39): This service refers to connecting / disconnecting the empty reefer container and supplying energy to said container, in order to adapt to the cold temperature required by the customer prior to placing the fresh or refrigerated merchandise inside the empty reefer container; it also includes monitoring and inspection throughout the period in which the merchandise remains in the pre-cooled container. This service is a price (not regulated) when the pre-cooled empty container is assigned to serve all those goods that come from (or will move towards) a full container unloaded or loaded by the Port Terminal (section 1.5.2.5). In those cases that the merchandise was unloaded or loaded as break bulk cargo (frozen fish and others) the regulated service tariff applies (section 1.5.2.7).

(n40): Price applicable to all users (consignee or representative) who demands, directly from APM Terminals Callao, the service in cases of inspection (by red channel, prior inspection, by BOE or another) or for other needs.

(n41): Service includes the use of Mobile Harbour Cranes for a period of 4 hours. For deconsolidations, service also includes the separation of the cargo that is located inside the container (flat rack or another) and placing the cargo on the truck or unit assigned by the consignee (or representative). In the event of consolidations, it comprises the reception of the cargo from trucks or the transport unit of the consignee (or representative) and the consolidation of the cargo or its placement inside the container (flat rack or another). This is subject to Mobile Harbour Cranes' availability.

(n42): Price applicable to all users who demand the service in cases where the loose break bulk cargo is placed on (or removed from) a pallet that will then be consolidated with (or previously will be deconsolidated from) a container. Includes the provision of straps or similar for the assembly of pallets. In this regard, regardless of the number of pallets served, the minimum price to be charged is USD 40. It does not apply to inspection cases (either prior, by red channel or requested by BOE personnel).

(n43): It is charged to each breakdown B/L mother, B/L son or B/L grandson.

(n44): Respective labels shall be placed according to cargo classification as per IMDG code for export operations. For import operations, placing of label shall take place whenever a discharged container does not have a label or corresponding label, in such case, removal of labels will take place. Label removal shall also take place when containers are returned for their reutilization or in those cases when these do not correspond to IMDG code, for placing the correct label instead.

(n45): Weighing of containers shall be executed at the facilities of the North Terminal as per request of the user (cargo owner or consignee) or the authorities. The charge of this service is applicable for containers that suffered no modification (from physical inspection or other reason), and which additional weighing result does not vary more than 3% of registered weight from standard service weighing.

(n46): This service shall not be applicable for shipping, unloading or transhipment services for empty containers set forth in Section 1.1.2 and 1.1.3 of current Tariff Schedule.

 - APMTIC will carry out a review every three (03) months of the weekly average of the transshipment containers mobilized by the user requesting the offer; if it is verified, during the review, that the user has not met the required weekly average, then APMTIC may cancel the offer.
 - APMTIC will carry out a review every three (03) months of the weekly average of the transshipment containers mobilized by the user requesting the offer; if it is verified, during the review, that the user has been complying with, at least 90% of the required weekly average, then APMTIC will apply for that quarterly period and with respect to the item i) discount, the additional discount of USD 35 (on the initial promotional tariffs for standard service of item i) over a maximum of 9,143 transshipment containers. This quarterly discount, which will apply to a maximum of 9,143 containers, will be granted in the form of a credit note or another modality agreed upon by the shipping line and APMTIC.
 - The additional discount of USD 25 per container set out in item vi) will be granted as long as the user has complied, during the first quarter, with the committed weekly average (that is, with 1,300 weekly average containers). This discount will only be granted for the first quarter of the offer.
 - In case of containers that exceed the 14 days free of use of the operating area and the free pool of 500 TEU, the user will have to assume the payment of the tariff applicable from the 15th day onwards (subsections 1.2.6.4 and 1.2.7.4 of the Tariff List). However, if the user mobilizes more than 1,300 containers per week on average, APMTIC may extend, subject to space availability, the days of use of the operational area for those containers that remain more than 14 days and cannot access the free pool. The extension days would be up to seven days at most. If APMTIC grants this benefit to a user, it will be applied to other users under similar conditions.

 - ii) Additional discounts per container on the offer tariffs described in item i), but which may be given for a maximum number of containers in the promotional accounting quarter. The additional discounts are as follows:
 - 1.1) If a weekly average of 1,190 to 1,359 containers is reached: Additional discount of USD 35 per container on the offer tariffs described in item i), but which may be given for a maximum of 9,143 containers in the quarter in which the offer is recorded.
 - 1.2) If a weekly average of 1,360 to 1,529 containers is reached: Additional discount of USD 50 per container on the offer tariffs described in item i), but which may be given for a maximum of 12,800 containers in the quarter in which the offer is recorded.
 - 1.3) If a weekly average of 1,530 containers is reached and/or exceeded: Additional discount of USD 70 per container on the offer tariffs described in item i), but which may be given for a maximum of 13,175 containers in the quarter in which the offer is recorded.
 - iii) Granting of 14 free days of use of the operational area (which represents 12 additional free days to the 48 free hours currently granted) for both container sizes (20 and 40 feet).
 - iv) Granting of a free pool of 500 TEUs (use of operational area of 500 TEUs of transshipment without time limit) during the promotional period. This free pool is granted to those containers that have exceeded the 14 days of use of the operational area.
 - v) Exemption from payment of container status change surcharge.
- Effective: The offer may be requested from April 30, 2025 to June 1, 2025.
- Requirements:
 - The average weekly volume will be counted and calculated during the second quarter of 2025 (from June 30, 2025, through June 30, 2025). Accounting is per container; for example, during the accounting period, a user could move a weekly average of 1,430 full cycle containers and 100 inter-terminal containers, which add up to a weekly average of 1,530 containers (which results in a weekly average of 2,860 movements, 2,860 full cycle movements and 100 inter-terminal movements). The average weekly count is calculated by taking into account the total number of transshipment containers moved during the count period and divided by the number of weeks in that period (which is 13 weeks). For this purpose, users should submit to the APMTIC commercial area the projections of transshipment containers that they will be mobilize during the period indicated above, in order to determine the availability of terminal space.
 - APMTIC will carry out a review every 15 days of the weekly average of the transshipment containers mobilized by the user requesting the offer; if it is verified, during the review, that the user has not met or reached the weekly average committed, then APMTIC will propose the offer of the lower range (for example, if the user committed to reaching a weekly volume of 1,530 and reaches a volume of 1,400, then APMTIC will propose the application of the offer with the range of 1,360 to 1,529 containers) or may cancel the offer.
 - The discount for item ii) (of USD 35, USD 50 or USD 70) will be granted in the form of a credit note or other modality agreed upon by the shipping line and APMTIC.
 - In case of containers that exceed the 14 days of free use of the operational area and the free pool of 500 TEU, the user will have to assume the payment of the tariff applicable from the 15th day onwards (subsections 1.2.6.4 and 1.2.7.4 of the Tariff List). However, if the user mobilizes more than 1,300 containers per week on average, APMTIC may extend, subject to space availability, the days of use of the operational area for those containers that remain more than 14 days and cannot access the free pool. The extension days would be up to seven days at most. If APMTIC grants this benefit to a user, it will be applied to other users under similar conditions.
 - This promotion may also be available to shipping lines that have existing agreements for other offers in Group 8. For shipping lines that access and meet the volume ranges required by this offer, and in order not to compromise the volume fulfillment they have agreed to in other offers, it will be granted that the movements made during the second quarter of 2025 (between April 1, 2025, and June 30, 2025) will apply or be accounted for in offers 8.1 or 8.2, but up to a maximum. If the user has the 8.1 offer in effect, they will be allowed to assign up to 800 containers per week; if they have the 8.2 offer in effect, they will be allowed to assign up to 1,300 containers per week; all of this regardless of whether the volume recorded in the second quarter of 2025 exceeds the volumes committed with the 8.1 or 8.2 offer (even if it reaches or exceeds 1,530 containers per week).
- This offer will be subject to space availability confirmed by APMTIC
